DIY VIKING ARMOUR

GEELONG REGIONAL LIBRARIES

Vikings love to battle! Create your own Viking armour like Josh in The Last Viking!
Adult supervision required for cutting cardboard.

RESOURCES: An old cardboard box, scissors, string (or wool), hole punch, tape (or stapler), pencils and textas for decoration, and an old hat (or cardboard headband).

STEP 1: Make Viking armour by using a large piece of cardboard. Draw a semicircle at the top.

STEP 2: Fold it in half and cut the semicircle creating a hole for your head.

STEP 3: Punch holes in sides and tie string (or wool) to secure the armour into place.

STEP 4: Using another piece of cardboard, draw and cut out two horn shapes.

STEP 5: Attach the horns to your hat (or cardboard headband) using tape or a stapler. You're now ready for your Nordic adventure.

READ: The Last Viking by Norman Jorgensen

Illus. James Foley, Pub. Freemantle Press & Read by James Foley

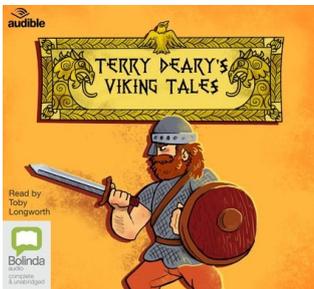

Young Josh is very brave. He's not afraid of anyone or anything - except maybe the dark. Pirates worry him a bit, of course, and so do boy-eating dinosaurs, and monsters under the bed. He's also just a little afraid of dragons and vampires...
