WHO WE ARE

The Geelong Regional Library Corporation's (GRLC) purpose is to provide a thriving public library service that boosts our communities' health, prosperity, connectedness and belonging. This is particularly pertinent as we contribute to the recovery of our region during and post pandemic.

We are a consistently recognised leader in Victoria's public library sector and provide services across the five local government areas that are part of the G21 region. This includes 19 libraries and 3 mobile library services, with five new libraries planned to open by 2025.

We create safe and welcoming spaces for everyone and host a rich calendar of learning and cultural programs and events with live audiences and via online platforms.

We continue to embed an organisational culture that is curious, caring, skilled and confident to experiment during these transformative times.

We are focussed on establishing strategic transformative frameworks and systems that will ensure we are known as a sustainable, well governed and future focussed organisation.

We aspire to be regional leaders in technology and innovation so that, as the custodians and distributors of accumulated knowledge and resources, we can ensure universal access for everyone in our growing region, whether online, in our libraries, or through outreach and innovative partnerships.

ROLE OVERVIEW

This role exists to realise our aspirations to be regional leaders in technology and innovation so that, as the custodians and distributors of accumulated knowledge and resources, we can ensure universal access for everyone in our growing region, whether online, in our libraries, or through outreach and innovative partnerships

The focus of the role is to enable strategic transformation by developing and implementing the integrated frameworks and systems that will run our growing organisation.

This Division ensures that we are set up for success; we are resourced to do our job well, deliver innovative library services and meet our Library Plan objectives, all within fiscal constraints.

The COO will lead the following functions through the lens of continuous improvement:

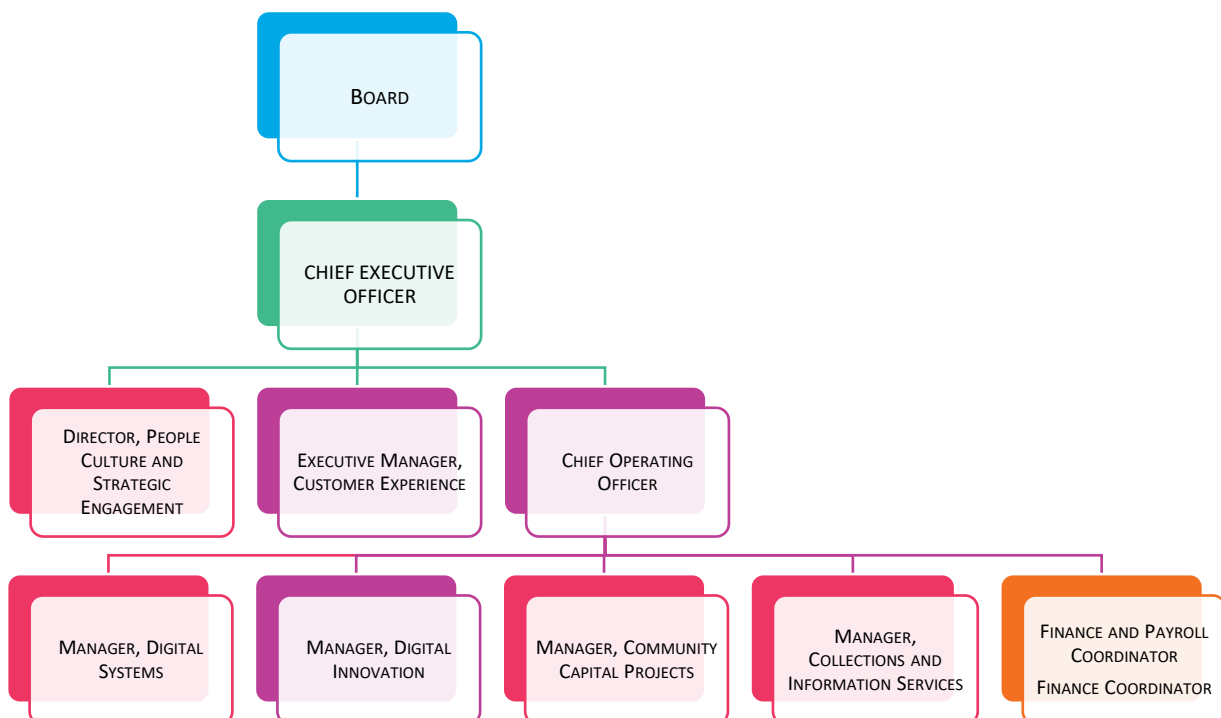

- digital solutions
- finance and business management
- governance and strategic risk management
- capital projects
- internal audit
- library collections

They enable high performance and are critical to our ability to be our best now and into the future.

As a member of the Executive Leadership Team, the COO contributes to a high performing team that models authentic, engaging, and professional leadership with our people and key stakeholders. They are committed to continuous improvement and demonstrate a deep alignment with our purpose and vision that focusses on access and inclusion for everyone, particularly our vulnerable communities and regional pandemic recovery and leadership.

The COO thrives when driving organisational transformation and collaborating to build strong workplace culture that celebrates and supports our curious, caring, and skilled people.
